Jeff Carroll, Billings Senior High, Billings, MT

Jeff Carroll has been the head coach at Billings Senior High School since 1987 and, currently, has an overall coaching record of 505-173. He has led his teams to nine state championships, four state runners-up finishes and two third place finishes. In addition, over 60 of his former players have gone on to play collegiate volleyball, seven of them at the Division I level. In his career, Carroll, a 2006 NHSACA National Coach of the Year nominee, has been named Montana Coach of the Year nine times and is USAV CAP Level II certified.

Along with his coaching duties, Carroll has taught Health Enhancement at Billings Senior High School since 1983. He has coached four AVCA All Americans, four Montana Gatorade Players of the Year and coached club with Montana Juniors since 1998. He has been inducted into the Montana Coaches Association Hall Of Fame.
